Agree To Conference With View To Peace—Names Five Men Opposed To Roosevelt But Who Will Not Insist on Nomination of Hughes.

Chicago, June 8.—The conferees of the Republican and Progressive parties adjourned at 12:30 a. m. after a two-hour session with the announcement that they would not meet again until after the session of the two conventions tomorrow. The only statement given out was:

"We report progress."

The conferees were unanimous in asserting that the conference was entirely successful. Discussion of candidates followed just two lines. The Progressives talked only about Colonel Roosevelt; the Republicans suggested the name of various favorite sons, including Fairbanks, Burton, Root, Hughes and others, but reached no unanimous decision that they favored any one of them above the other. The entire range of discussion, it was said, never got beyond generalities.

While both sides reported "progress," the Republicans appeared to take a more optimistic view of the situation than some of the Progressives, among whom there was far from a unanimity of opinion that an agreement was probable.

Will Report to Conventions

It was agreed that the conferees should report to their respective conventions at all sure that the convention which is represented could be controlled. It was understood that three ballots would be taken in the Republican convention, and if without result, there should be a further conference tomorrow night. If, however, as night very likely be the case, either or both conventions should make a nomination today, all further negotiations would be impossible.

The conference was held at the Chicago Club, to which the Republican conferees preceded the Progressives. George W. Perkins, Governor Johnson, Horace Wilkins and other Progressive leaders conferred at Mr. Perkins' headquarters, where the long distance wire to Oyster Bay is located, until almost 10 o'clock last night and then left for the club.

Situation Is Summed Up

At the end of the session of the conferees, one of the conferees summed up the situation in this way: "We all agreed not to discuss the details of our meeting until reports are made to our respective conventions today. I can say this, however: It has not changed the situation in respect to the probable nomination of Hughes by the Republicans. A situation had been created by which the Progressives will, in all probability, be willing to postpone the desire of the radical members to rush into a nomination of Colonel Roosevelt for the sole purpose of being the first to put a ticket in the field.

"There was absolute harmony, so far as our personal relations were concerned, and I believe we made for good feeling regardless of whether we accomplished the main purpose of coming together or not."

The acceptance by both conventions of the peace conference proposal threw the situation into a new uncertainty. Hughes supporters and many other Republican leaders feel that it can not prevent the nomination of the Justice, but the development has had the effect of holding off the expected crystallization upon Justice Hughes in the Republican convention.

The Progressive convention reassembles this morning at 10 o'clock and the Republican at 11 o'clock.

ROOSEVELT ASKS PARTIES TO JOIN

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 8.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt today issued an appeal to the Progressive and Republican conventions at Chicago to forget their past differences and join "for the safety and honor of our country to enforce the policy of genuine Americanism and genuine preparedness." He was ready, he said, to go to Chicago and address the Republican convention desired it.

He assailed President Wilson as having rendered "the most evil service that can be rendered to a great democracy," and declared that it was for the convention to show the people "that they have a worthy alternative to which to turn."

He charged that "professional German-Americans" were seeking to terrorize the Republican convention and that they wished to elect as President "a victory to a foreign government."

The appeal was contained in a message to former Senator William B. Jackson, of Maryland, Republican National Committeeman, in reply to the letters of invitation to the Colonel to come to Chicago.

FAIRBANKS BOOSTERS FORCED TO POSTPONE BIG RED FIRE PARADE

Chicago, June 8.—Rainy weather has not dampened the ardor of the Fairbanks boosters in the least, but it did serve to cause a postponement of the Fairbanks street parade, which had been planned for tonight. Fireworks and rain don't go together, so it was decided to delay the red-fire demonstration until tomorrow night.

One hundred of the Fairbanks boosters invaded the lobby of the Auditorium this evening and shouted with all their might for the Indiana candidate, while the Progressives assembled there took up the cry for "Teddy". The battle of campaign yells, while noisy, was entirely friendly.

The Roosevelt followers are friendly enough to the Indiana man and they are proposing Fairbanks for the vice-presidency. The Indiana men, however, reply that Fairbanks ought to be satisfactory to the Progressive element for president or they are willing to urge him for second place.

Mrs. E. E. Swisher and daughter, Alice, of Ripley, are spending the week with Mrs. Walter Swisher of East Fourth street.

WET GROUNDS

Did Not Keep Maysville From Taking a 1 to 0 Game From Charleston Thursday—Both Coffindaffer and French Pitch Well.

We won.

Yes we did. Maysville in all her glory arose yesterday and administered one nice drubbing to the Charleston Senators to the tune of one to nothing. The game was well played notwithstanding the muddy grounds and both pitchers received excellent support, not an error being made until the ninth inning, when Wickham threw low to catch runner at first.

SUFFRAGE CAUSE GIVEN APPROVAL BY PROGRESSIVES

Chicago, June 8.—The Progressive platform with its principal planks devoted to an expression of Americanism, preparedness, protection and woman suffrage, was laid before the Progressive convention today. It was received with enthusiasm and that prepared its adoption with but little if any change and was made the unfinished business when the convention recessed tonight to allow its conferees to discuss peace plans with the Republicans.

President Wilson said lately that some Democrats, when appointed to exalted station, grow. Others, he declared, swell. Ever since, Washington has been trying, with little success, to discover the growing variety. The President further confessed a recurring desire to use a pin on the swelling kind, the only objection to this, he confessed, being the probable nature of the gases liberated. True. If it were not for the "public nuisance" phase of this unhappy predicament he could use the pin freely and with commensurate benefits to the country at large. However, the ballot box, that more humane instrument for operations on "swelled" Democrats will soon achieve the same end. After November, many swellings will recede amidst the solitude of private life.

A member of the staff of the Library of Congress has been dismissed because he is reported to have said things disrespectful of the President in discussing the administration's course with Germany. Respect for constituted authority is a highly desirable thing to have—but if, in this Republic, a man becomes mute simply because he happens to be on the government payroll, we have a condition of things which is just the reverse of desirable. The Winnetka post office affair was thought to have settled some of the questions relating to free speech.

The Congressional by-election in West Virginia, where the second District has been redeemed to Republicanism after several years of possession by the Democrats, points the way of all elections this year.

They say death evens all scores, and perhaps that's why we keep right on stirring them up.

Another week closer to war.

OLD MATTY

May Have Greater Year—"Big Six" Liable to Make Sensational Come-Back as Did Young in 1907.

New York, June 8—Is Christy Mathewson going to flash the same sensational comeback that Cy Young did in 1907 just when everyone had figured him as completely through? In many ways the records of Mathewson and Young parallel each other. Just recently it seemed that they would diverge—that Mathewson had reached the end—but the great showing by "Big Six" during the past month has led many to hope that he, too, will do as Young did.

Young broke into the majors back in 1890. For ten years he starred with the Cleveland Club, then was transferred to the St. Louis Cardinals, and, in 1901, was sold to the Red Sox. It was the brilliant pitching of Cy during 1903 and 1904 that enabled the Bostonians to win two pennants and one world's championship.

But in 1905 something went amiss with Young's arm. The old whip wouldn't crack as it had in the other years; the old zipp was gone from the ball. The opposition clubbers found little or no difficulty in swatting the heaves of the veteran.

Just about then the "wise ones" began to chant the swan song. They pointed out that Young was through. "He's been pitching for sixteen years, and no matter how good a man is he can't go on forever," they declared. "Furthermore, Cy is 38 years old—an age far beyond the athletic prime."

Young's Great Record

When Young turned in his 1905 average it was found that he had won only eighteen of the thirty-seven combats in which he had figured. Young's showing for 1906 was even worse. He won only thirteen out of thirty-four games, and didn't seem able to go the route. He finished the season with an average of .382—the worst he ever amassed. That convinced the bulk of the fans that Cy was through.

But the Red Sox manager wouldn't "can" Cy. He figured that his great work for the Red Sox in the other years merited his keeping him for another season, even if Cy did nothing but coaching duty.

And so Cy, then 39 years old, was kept on the Red Sox roster, while the fans clamored for his banishment to the Old Men's Home. That probably peeved him a bit, because, after having his arm tinkered here and there, he begged for a chance to display his wares in 1907. He did—and won twenty-two out of thirty-seven combats, for a pitching average of .595. The next season—1908—Cy won twenty-one out of thirty-two games, for an average of .656, which is quite a healthy showing for a forty-one-year-old hurler. On June 30, 1908, he shut out the Yankees without a hit, only one man reaching first.

In 1909 he went back to the Cleveland Club and won nineteen out of thirty-four games. The following year—1910—he figured in seventeen games and won ten. In 1911 he took unto himself a job with the Boston Braves and won four out of nine starts. He decided then that he was getting a bit too old to pitch, being 44 years old at the time, and he retired from the frolic.

Reviewing Young's record from the end of the 1906 campaign, when he was considered "all through," until the time he actually quit, we find that he won seventy-three and lost only fifty-six games, giving him a grand average of .567 for the five years from 1907 to 1911, inclusive.

The Case of Mathewson

Now let us consider the case of Mathewson:

Matty joined the Giants in 1900. Over a sweep of fifteen seasons—from 1900 until the end of the 1914 season—the big blond hurler was the king pin of the Giant pitching staff. But late in the 1914 season he contracted "arthritis," as did Young at the end of his sixteenth year.

In 1915 Matty, then in his sixteenth year as a major performer, was of no real value to his club. His arm seemed gone. He won only six out of his twenty-two starts, some of those victories were of the fluke order. Before the season ended the "wise ones" declared that Matty was about through.

"He's been pitching for sixteen years, and no matter how good a man is, he can't go forever," they said, repeating what their associate members said about Cy Young back in 1906. The folks pointed out, also, that Matty was quite an elderly person, as baseballers go, then approaching his thirty-sixth birthday.

But Matty in 1916 seems to be duplicating what Young did in 1907. He has started off this season at a great rate. His arm trouble seems gone. In his first try-out of the year "Big Six" didn't look overly good. That is because he merely was giving the wing a workout. But since then he has been pitching real baseball. He hasn't the old speed of bygone years, but he is using a splitter and his brain, and by mixing up his delivery he is breeding along in a way that makes it seem as if he still has a number of years of major league usefulness in his system.

WOMAN TRIES TO KIDNAP YOUNG PORTSMOUTH GIRLS

(Portsmouth Times)

Prompt action by Mrs. H. T. Wingo, owner of a South Portsmouth restaurant and rooming house foiled a kidnapping plan that had partly succeeded several days ago when Pearl Rice, 14, and Rosa Rice 16, were taken across the river to South Portsmouth by a woman giving the name of Lulu Kitter, who was making arrangements to take the children to Maysville, Ky.

The two girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rice of Mill and Sinton streets had been to the American Steam Laundry and on their way home Pearl's dress got covered with mud. The Kitter woman who knew the girls happened along and took them to a Chillicothe street store where she bought the girl a dress and several other new articles. She promised them many other beautiful things and they accompanied her to South Portsmouth about 2:30 o'clock. They missed C. & O. train No. 7 for Maysville.

The young woman gave the two girls $6 and told them to go to Mrs. Wingo's place and get a room while she came back across the river. Mrs. Wingo gave the girls a room but did not see anything of the woman until about 9 o'clock when she attempted to slip into the room unseen. Mrs. Wingo was waiting and as soon as she got a good look at her she ordered her to leave. The Kitter woman is "dark" and Mrs. Wingo took her for a colored woman.

Will Brown of South Portsmouth who knows the girls saw them at the depot with the stranger and at once came to the Rice home here and notified the mother. He also told Mrs. Wingo the girls belonged in Portsmouth and a daughter of Mrs. Wingo was bringing them to this side of the river when they were met by their mother. The Kitter woman ran from the float on the Kentucky side at the sight of Mrs. Rice.

The girls claimed the woman was drunk and that she wanted them to "hobo" to Maysville after they had missed the passenger train. She promised them many things when they arrived at her home in Maysville.

The girls say the woman was drinking and had a quart bottle when she returned to the depot from this side of the river.

On the way home the girls said they wanted to come home but the woman would not allow them to do so. Mrs. Rice expects to have the woman arrested as soon as she puts in her appearance in this city.

FREE REIN IS PROMISED FOR CHINA BY JAPANESE CABINET

Tokyo, Japan, June 7—A special session of the Cabinet was summoned today to consider the situation in China, resulting from the death of President Yuan Shi Kai.

At the conclusion of the meetings the Foreign Office made a statement to the effect that Japan had decided not to make any new political move in regard to China.

The statement follows: "As Li Yuan Hung has succeeded to the Presidency in accordance to the Chinese constitution, Japan has decided not to make any new political move in China. Japan will adhere to its past policy, which is based on the desire to have the contending factions come to terms and bring about restoration of peace and order."

In view of this statement and of the fact that Peking is quiet, it is understood Japan will send no additional troop to China. For the present Japan will await developments.

The Foreign Office says it has no official advice confirming reports that Yuan Shi Kai was poisoned. The death of the President caused a pronounced sensation here. The newspapers express fears of disorder in the interior of China and a general political upheaval. They predict that Li Yuan Hung will find many pitfalls, particularly of a financial nature.

Premier Count Okuma presided at today's Cabinet meeting.

As a general thing, papa's pipe is popular with only one member of the family.

To make friends of men show them how to make money; to make friends of women show them how to become beautiful.

Also, young man, if you marry a wife who knows how to economize there will be more money for you to spend.

Bit of History Dug Up in the Production of "The Birth of a Nation" Which Shows at the Washington Theater June 16 and 17.

When General Robert E. Lee, at Appomattox, wished to make some marginal notes on the papers of the final surrender, he asked the bystanders for a pencil. Strange to say, not one of the numerous officers and aides-de-camp was able to offer him one. At last, an officer of Lee's staff extracted a pocket inkstand and feather quill from his kit, and with the aid of these the historic document was written and the names of Grant and Lee affixed at the bottom.

The above bit of history was dug up by David W. Griffith during the staging of "Lee's Surrender to Grant at Appomattox," one of his striking historical fac-simile scenes in Griffith's motion picture, "The Birth of a Nation," coming to the Washington Theater. General Grant is correctly represented in his fatigue uniform, dusty and travel-stained, whilst General Lee is shown in the complete panoply of military dress. "My aim," said Griffith, in speaking of such scenes recently, "has been to introduce as little acting as possible. I have tried to be accurate in every detail and keep away from theatricalism."

TAVENNER STRONG FOR POLITICAL PREPAREDNESS

(From the San Antonio Light)

Just at present the Fourteenth Texas congressional district is being flooded with copies of an address delivered in the national house of representatives by Clyde H. Tavenner of Illinois. These pamphlets are being sent through the mails by the personal Frank of James L. Slayden, and there is about a ton of them in weight.

Mr. Tavenner has all along been a strong opponent of preparedness. He says the people cannot permit that their money shall be wasted in that way. He further declares that it is the duty of congressmen to see that the funds of the people are not frittered away, and he still further poses and says that preparedness against war is an utter and complete waste of public funds.

Now this same Mr. Tavenner has asked Congress to appropriate $50,000 for a postoffice in a certain town in his district. The town has a population of 2,000, and Mr. Tavenner, who is so solicitous of the public funds, wants only about $25 per head for the people of that town out of the public funds which it is the sworn duty of congressmen to so scarcely guard.

Giving San Antonio a population of 125,000—who has more than that, but take the minimum number which Dallas and Houston will give us—and see what sort of a postoffice we should ask for on the same basis. All we would get would be a public building costing $3,125,000 which will supply the postal needs of San Antonio for many years to come.

And the people of the United States are asked to pay this much money to assist in securing the return to Congress of a man who will not even do as much for them as to attempt to insure them against the evils and horror of war.

Truly a great patriot is this Tavenner. Give him all he wants and the remainder of the people of the United States may go to destruction.

SOCIAL SERVICE IN INDIA

"A Social Service Bureau has been started in Bombay," writes Dr. F. B. Price, editor of the Indian Witness. "Some of the leading citizens in Bengal believe that one should be opened in that city also. It is suggested that the following subjects be considered: 'Extent of Misery Among Widows; The Number of Undesirable Matrimonial Alliances; The Condition of the Untouchables; The Condition of the Rural Population; Causes Which Lead to the Depopulation of Villages; The Waste of Money in Litigation; and The Habits of the Student Population.'"

DON'T BE MISLED

Maysville Citizens Should Read and Heed This Advice

Kidney trouble is dangerous and often fatal.

Don't experiment with something new and untried.

Use a tested kidney remedy.

Begin with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Used in kidney troubles 50 years.

Recommended here and everywhere.

A Maysville citizen's statement forms convincing proof.

It's local testimony—it can be investigated.

Henry Callenstein, blacksmith, Popular street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best of kidney medicines. I have used different kinds and no other has ever equaled this one. When my kidneys were out of order and I had pain in my back, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They stopped the pains and my kidneys became strong. The cure has been permanent."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. Callenstein. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

He had entered the town against orders. His body was found the following morning. The unknown driver belonged to Captain William H. Tobin's truck train. #### FAMOUS FAIR TO PASS INTO HISTORY

Paris, Ky.—Two suits were filed today in office of the Clerk of the Bourbon Circuit Court asking for the foreclosure of mortgages and for an order of sale of the grounds and property of the old Bourbon County Agricultural Society.

For a period of over seventy years the Bourbon County Fair was rated as one of the best and most prosperous fairs in the South. Located in the heart of the Bluegrass region and the center of the short-horn cattle industry, its exhibits of livestock and various products of the farm and no equal. Its fame was Nation-wide and each year prominent men from all parts of the United States were its guests.

The first fair held by the present association was in 1826, and, up to last year, its meetings were continuous, with the exception of two years during the Civil War and one year during an epidemic of cholera in the Bluegrass. Its list of officers and directors during that period embraced the leading families of the State. A few years ago, however, interest in the meetings of the association began to wane, due to the decadence of the Short-horn industry and the rivalry of other and newer organizations in adjoining counties. The attendance each year grew smaller until, with the absolute failure of last year's exhibition, it was decided to discontinue the meetings.

TWO TO BE HANGED TODAY

Santa Fe, N. M., June 7.—Juan Sanchez and Francisco Alvarez, two of the Villa bandits condemned to death for first degree murder for participation in the Columbus massacre, were taken to Deming today from the penitentiary here to be hanged tomorrow. Today the Governor issued a 21 day reprieve for further investigation of the case of the other five men. The Adjutant General will have two companies of the National Guard at Deming tomorrow to guard against threatened attempts at rescue by Mexicans.

WOMEN'S STOMACH TROUBLES

The Great Woman's Medicine Often Just What Is Needed.

We are so used to thinking of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy exclusively for female ills that we are apt to overlook the fact that it is one of the best remedies for disorders of the stomach.

For stomach trouble of women it is especially adapted, as it works in complete harmony with the female organism, since it contains the extracts of the best tonic roots and herbs. It tones up the digestive system, and increases the appetite and strength. Here is what one woman writes showing what this medicine does:—

Newfield, N. Y.—"I am so pleased to say I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as an economical and beneficial remedy in most ailments pertaining to women. At least I found it so by only taking two bottles. I had indigestion in a bad form and I am now feeling in the best of health and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BURR WILLIAMS, R. D. No. 29, Newfield, N. Y.

Many women suffer from that "all gone feeling," and "feel so faint," while doing their work. Ten chances to one their digestive system is all out of order. A tablespoonful of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after each meal should completely remedy this condition in a few days.

LEASED WIRES OF ROOSEVELT COMMITTEE ARE CUT

Chicago, Ill., June 7.—The leased telephone wires of the Roosevelt Republican Committee, running from the Congress Hotel to Oyster Bay, were cut early today, the telephone instruments smashed and pictures of Colonel Roosevelt destroyed or carried away.

The work of the vandals was done not in headquarters of the committee, but in Room 4, on the main floor of the hotel, where the telephone wires terminate. The destruction was accomplished by persons familiar with the arrangement of the wires, for only the leased wires of the Roosevelt Committee were cut, while others were left untouched.

One picture of Roosevelt was torn from the wall and trampled on the floor. Of several other pictures there was no trace. Wreckage of the telephone instruments was scattered about the floor.

The wires were in use last night until after midnight. Members of the Roosevelt Committee and telephone operators declared they had no idea as to the identity of the vandals.

SAM STAIRS

Sizes Up the Railroad Situation in Maysville About Right—Drafts An Ordinance For the City Councilmen.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad is getting cross-eyed in trying to obey the ordinances of Maysville as the City Council loops the loops in its efforts to regulate railroad traffic through the town. Some time ago the speed limit of trains was reduced to six miles an hour within the corporation. The employees of the road at once proceeded to comply with the edict, and the time it required to get the many mile-long freight trains from one end of the city to the other all day long kept the crossings blocked half the time, either by an east or west bound train. In a week or two the limit was changed to fifteen miles an hour. Then a new thought dawned upon the councilmanic brain, but it was ordered that engine bells must be rung at crossings, which meant almost continuously from one end of the city to the other, and the police department gave warning that arrests would be made for failure to ring the engine bells. The employees of the road complied with the law, and now a kick has gone up from those whose rest was disturbed by the noise of the merry bell-ringers, demanding that "kerfue shall not ring tonight." Lest the State law requiring the blowing of the whistle or the ringing of the engine bell, or both, at all public crossings, and the Municipal laws prohibiting such things conflict, we would suggest an ordinance and resolution something like this:

"Whereas, the C. & O. Railroad carries a whistle and a large brass bell on each of its engines for the sole purpose of annoying the residents of Maysville, therefore,

"Be it ordained, etc., that trains passing through Maysville shall not run faster than a lame dog can trot, and no train shall be more than five minutes passing any public crossing or street. The bell shall be rung at every crossing in the corporation, but in such a low, soft tone that it can not be heard by residents across the sidewalk. The whistle must be blown at each crossing, but always in a low breath not louder than a whisper. Whistles must not be sounded at all; and if the company finds it necessary to carry a bell and whistle for signal purposes, they should be removed from the engine and placed in the locker of the caboose before crossing the corporation line and replaced after getting out of town. A phonograph may be used while passing through town, but no record shall be played at night except: 'Dream On, Sweet Dreamer, Dream On!'"

TO ENTER POWERFUL BOAT

G. G. Eddy of Saginaw, Mich., will enter one of the most remarkable boats ever built, in the Mississippi Valley Power Boat Association regatta at St. Paul July 4, 5 and 6. The craft is a 16-foot hydroplane built this season and powered with a 4 cylinder motor developing 70 horse power. The motor was built especially for the requirements of this boat and turns 2,000 revolutions per minute. The piston displacement is only 254 cubic inches, so that it will be eligible to enter Class A, in which the limit is 256 cubic inches.

In trials conducted at Saginaw, Mr. Eddy declares, a speed boat of this size and power, and is faster time than has ever been made in any of the class racing events in the Mississippi Valley in the past. In fact the fastest time in the races of the association at Ham-bial last year was 39.2 miles an hour. This was the average speed of the winner, Buffalo Enquirer, in the free-for-all. However, it is not considered this represented her actual capabilities for speed, as there was little competition to make extreme speed necessary.

If the Eddy boat actually develops 43 miles an hour at St. Paul, where she has been entered, it is likely she will prove one of the big surprises of the 1916 racing season.

Mr. Eddy also expects to enter his boat in any other race meets which may be held by the various boat clubs in the Mississippi Valley States during the present season.

BELL GIVES 'EM PROOF

El Paso, Texas, June 7.—A column of United States troops five miles long was reviewed here today by General George Bell, Jr., commanding the district border patrol. Military authorities said the spectacle was for the purpose of convincing residents of this section that the soldiers are prepared to protect the city and its environs in event of emergency. In the throng which viewed the parade were hundreds of Mexicans who came across the river from Juarez.

THE WAVE OF TIME

(By Geo. W. Adair.)

The tide of time rolls swiftly by But never flows back again And though the vanished days we sigh Our grieving is in vain The matins of the rising day The silver evening of chime The sounds we love, all float away Upon the wave of time.

Of what avail are earthly joys Or worldly honors vain The pleasures which true peace destroys And leave but pain? Life here is but a pilgrimage Unto a faint chime Where all past sorrows buried are Beneath the wave of time.

Let us while here on earth aspire To reach the brighter world Where night's dark banner o'er the day Will never be unfurled Where Angel hands sweep golden harps And seraph-voices sublime Gush in glad strains of silvery sound Beyond the wave of time.

Oh, may we fix our hearts upon The joys that never decay Nor heed the fading things of earth That soon must pass away The fleeting joys that here we prize Will with answers decline And soon forgotten we shall sink Beneath the wave of time.

RUE-MOB STORMS CONSULAR OFFICE AT CHIHUAHUA

Chihuahua, Mexico, June 7.—A mob of several thousand persons attacked the American Consulate tonight, tore down the official Consulate shield over the door and shattered all the windows.

General Lopez rushed a detachment of troops to the Consulate and drove the infuriated mob away from the building.

The crowd then swarmed toward the Foreign Club. All sorts of missiles were hurled through the windows. The doors were broken down and unsuccessful attempts were made to burn down the buildings.

A score of foreigners, including several Americans, who had taken refuge in the Foreign Club, escaped by making their way over the roofs. They were pursued by the mobs and their homes stoned. The city has been placed under martial law by General Jacinto Traveno.

The mob outbreak followed a patriotic manifestation that was held at the opera house. There Trevino told an immense gathering that unless the American Government withdrew immediately its soldiers from Mexico the de facto Government would call all Mexicans to arms.

Several thousand persons gathered for the manifestation.

RECRUITS IN DEMAND

San Antonio, Texas, June 6.—Three thousand recruits are wanted in the service of the United States. Squads of officers and enlisted men, under direction of Lieutenant Colonel John S. Hoover, started today on a tour of the state to establish stations in all of the larger cities, and from these to make trips to smaller towns for enlisting recruits. There were 40 units of the guard which must have approximately 70 men each to bring them to war strength.

A Man's Worth

depends upon his power to produce what the world recognizes as face value.

And when you skirmish around you'll find that this power—which is just power of mind and body—depends to a remarkable degree on the food one eats.

For highest accomplishments one must have the best values in food—food which builds well-balanced bodies and brains.

Grape-Nuts

has that kind of value. It contains all the nutriment of whole wheat and barley, including the important mineral elements so often lacking in the usual diet.

Grape-Nuts comes ready to eat, is easy to digest, nourishing, economical, wonderfully delicious—a help in building men of worth.

"There's a Reason"

FEARED BURIAL ALIVE

(New York Sun)

Because of his fear of being buried alive Robert P. Lyon, who died at 804 West One Hundred and Eightieth street on May 28 last, gave instruction in his will that his death must be determined definitely before his funeral, and that in no event should he be buried underground. The will disposed of an estate estimated at $75,000 to his wife, Mrs. Grace I. Lyon, and two sons, Arthur S. Lyon, of Hutherford, N. J., and Robert D. Lyon, of Lynn, Mass. In his will Mr. Lyon said:

"I desire to impress upon my wife and my executors that I have an intense dread of being buried alive, and I therefore charge both of them and also such physician or surgeon as they may select, after my apparent death and before my funeral, to have my body subjected to thorough tests of death, and to cause the radial artery at either wrist to be cut across by a competent surgeon. I understand that if the vessel is bloodless life has ceased. I further direct that my body be embalmed and placed in a temporary receiving tomb above ground until such time as it can be removed to its final resting place, also to be above ground.

Furthermore, I desire it to be understood that I have an intense aversion and dread of my body being buried in the earth or underground, and I hereby charge my executors and my wife that after the placing of my remains in a temporary receiving tomb, as aforesaid, at Woodlawn Cemetery if possible, where I have a plot, they be removed therefrom as soon as possible, and then be finally deposited in a stone tomb, sarcophagus or marble or other sepulcher and to the end that my remains may never be buried in the earth, but be forever kept above ground."

Mr. Lyon empowered his executors to spend $3,000 for his tomb or sarcophagus, and directed that it be large enough to accommodate his wife's body as well as his own.

GROWTH OF IMPORTS

The administration announces the volume of exports every month in trumpet tones, but uses the soft pedal when it comes to imports. Exports are running to amazing totals, of course, on account of the war, and on account of our ability to furnish things that the belligerents must have. The really striking thing about the figures of our foreign trade for March is not that exports ran up to high figures, but that goods were imported to the amount of $214,000,000, a sum $36,000,000 in excess of imports for any month prior to the war and $20,000,000 more than February, when the figures surpassed any previous record for a single month. Our imports for the first nine months of the fiscal year were $1,505,000,000, or $104,000,000 more than for the same period in 1913. No wonder far-sighted business men are wondering what will happen when the end of the war comes if the Underwood tariff law is in force at that time. Export business is necessarily a side issue with the belligerent nations. Germany and Austria are exporting no goods at all, except by roundabout channels. Ships are scarce. Freight rates are abnormally high. But in spite of all these disadvantages, more foreign goods are finding a market here than in time of peace.—Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat and Chronicle.

RECORDS BROKEN

All coal loading records of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad company were shattered during the month of May, 1916, according to official figures showing that, during the month 2,851,030 tons were loaded. This surpasses by far the record for March, 1916, when all previous records to that time were broken. May of this year, however, shows an increase over March of nearly 351,000 tons.

Officials of the road are very optimistic when speaking of the coal loading figures, which have been on the steady increase during the past year. The operators in the coal fields of this district are also well pleased, for their product is on the move faster than ever before. The figures for May of this year are about double those of 1915.

"ONE HUNDRED NEW BELIEVERS"

"You will be glad to hear that about one hundred new believers have been enrolled. Of course, we cannot expect to hold all of these, but many of them will prove faithful to the end. Another encouraging feature is the fact that a number of backsliders are coming back into the fold. This is a certain indication of the healthy condition of the church, for backsliders in Korea are often the hardest of all to reach."—Rev. M. B. Stokes, Choon Chun, Korea.

WAITE'S ATTORNEY APPEALS

FLAG DAY

Wednesday, June 14—Let's Have It With a Preparedness Parade.

Flag Day will be on next Wednesday, June 14. Would it not be a good idea to honor the occasion by having a preparedness parade such as is to be held in Cincinnati shortly.

Secretary Boone of the Chamber of Commerce could very easily manage this matter with the assistance of several of the city and county officials and leading citizens. The parade would include school children, fraternal orders, business floats, and numerous other things to make it interesting. The people of the county should be invited to participate, and the county school children in the parade would be an attractive feature. Let's get together on this.

DOUBLE HEADER TODAY

Weather permitting, the Burley Cubs and Charleston Senators will hitch up in a double header at League Park this afternoon. The boys are in good shape after their rest and expect to take both games. Several more new faces will probably be seen on the local team within the next few days.

Maysville leaves tomorrow for a road trip of twelve days. If they acquit themselves as well on this trip as the previous one they will be up in the race by the time they arrive home. At present Portsmouth is the only team that has a large lead over the others. The other five teams are all pretty evenly matched and it is possible for any of them to be up in the first division.

MY, BUT THEY'RE A CONFIDENT SET.

Plack Reed was given a tryout by the Maysville Ohio State League ball team Monday, as catcher. In three times up he got one hit, driving in a run. He was not carried away with the idea of joining that team, and will stick to telegraphing, catching for Augusta nine on Sunday. Every player on the Augusta team thinks the Maysville league team would be easy picking for them, and are awaiting the opportunity for a game to decide which is the best team.—Bracken Chronicle.

REPUBLICAN LIQUOR FORCES ARE BEATEN

Chicago, June 8.—The one outstanding success attained by the Herf forces in the fight for control of the Kentucky delegation and the election of Mr. Herf as national committeeman, is the defeat administered to the liquor forces within the Republican party in Kentucky.

One of the men most prominent in the fight, which is apparently ended, discussing this situation, said:

"The Republican party of Kentucky has been lifted above the point where liquor is a dominating feature, and placed on a higher plane. The Republican party of Kentucky can no longer be termed a liquor party. The control has been wrested from the hands of the wet forces."

This sentiment was echoed by delegates and others here. While Colonel J. W. McCulloch personally is spoken of in the highest terms by those who are in the camp opposing him, it is realized, said a leading Republican here, that Colonel McCulloch having the preservation of his own business naturally in mind, had in the past and would have continued in the future, to maintain an alliance with the liquor forces. Now the party is free of that innumerable and a new day has dawned for the party."

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

There will be a meeting of all of the officers and workers of the Mason County Sunday School Association Sunday, June 11th, in the First Presbyterian Church at 2:30 p. m. State Worker W. J. Vaughan will be present and as important business is to be transacted every one is urged to be present.

ARE YOU GOING?

If you are a young person do not let any one laugh you out of your ambition to bank money and better your condition. Ten years from now if you are thrifty and your friends are spenders the laugh will be on the other side. You will be going up hill—they will be going down; for none of us stand still in this world. It is the sober, industrious, thrifty young man and young woman who become rich, happy and contented. The dollars you place in your account here are investments that you are making in building up your character—the foundation upon which your future success will be built.

"In every human being there is a wish to ameliorate his own condition."—Macaulay.

Strawberry Short Cake Suggestion

Appetizing—Delicious

Take one of Stone's Silver Slice Cakes, split it lengthwise and fill with full-ripe, luscious berries—the result will be a revelation to you.

We have tried it and find that Silver Slice lends itself perfectly for use with any strawberry combination. The flavors blend nicely and the contrast of color is most pleasing and tempting.
